Barnardos' boxes

Can any pupils who have boxes still at home please bring them into school as soon as possible. Thank you, as ever, for your generosity supporting this charity.

School website

One of our parents, Jacqui Maclean has been developing a school website. If you haven't yet visited the site, have a look and bookmark the site. We will continue developing a website over the course of the next few terms and then regularly updated with examples of pupils work for you to enjoy.

The latest features added to the site a Schoolbag section, which tells you what pupils will need to have with them in school on each school day. Don't forget that you can also pick up copies of the school newsletter from the site as well. Let us know what you think about the website and what you would like to see featured. The address of the site is: www.broseleyceprimary.co.uk

It's One World Week again! What's on this year?

For the third year running, the school is holding its annual 'One World Week' and so it's going to be a really busy few days in school with even more going on than usual.

Each class is taking a different country as the starting point for a week of activities. We have a real mix of countries this year - China, Kenya, Libya, Bulgaria, Egypt and Pakistan.

Visitors to the school this week will include Chitraloka Dance company, a Chilean band called 'Caliche' and a specialist music teacher to work with Year Five pupils on Egyptian 'bucket' drumming and story work with younger pupils.

Fiona Jackson, who has helped us organize One World Week, will be working with different classes using her expertise to deliver dance from different cultures. Sarah Yates, who has done so much quality artwork in school already, will be working in several classes as well.

As usual, there will be lots of cookery going on as well as a whole range of other activities. We hope pupils enjoy the week.

Book Fair - our book character dressing-up day

Report: Alice Jackson & Sam Walker

We had our book fair dressing up day on Friday. Lots of us were dressed up as different the characters. In assembly, we all stood up and show of our costumes to everyone else. Mr Heath, Mrs Hartland and Mrs Shaw spent the whole day dressed as Ompa-Lompahs from Charlie and the Chocolate Factory and Mr Pygott came into assembly dressed as Batman. Mrs Aston was Saucepan Man and Mrs Bagshaw was one of the Witches.

Thank you to everyone who helped with the fantastic costumes which made the day such a success. We must mention the Year Six class who had really made a special effort this year.

There were lots of characters from favourite books and we hope that pupils will be able to find some of their favourites at our Book Fair which is running until Wednesday.

Escorted walk from Cockshutt Lane car park

After the successful trial of having an escorted walk from the Cockshutt Lane car park during our Walk to School week, a number of parents have very kindly volunteered to carry on meeting pupils on a daily basis.

Remember, if you do have to use the car to drop your children off, it is much quieter, and therefore safer, to drop them off at the car park at the edge of the Birchmeadow on Cockshutt Lane. Of course, it means pupils also get some fresh air before they start their day. Our volunteers will wait for pupils between 8:45 a.m. and 8:50 a.m. each morning and walk them across the school. Is anyone else is available to help one day a week or to be reserve?

Remembrance service

Thank you to those parents and pupils who were able to attend the Remembrance Sunday service at the Broseley War Memorial.
